

Compliance

Understanding the increased complexity of employee benefits is a challenge. It is our job to keep you informed of legislative changes and to assist you in becoming compliant with those changes.

We have a variety of resources designed to offer you time-saving tools and convenient resources. Whether through our website or our Documents on Command tool, you have a direct link to a set of comprehensive guides for all types of compliance issues.

Lovitt & Touché has many partnerships that provide resources that can assist with more in-depth technical research. These include the Employee Benefits Institute of America, Spencer's Research Reports, and various partnerships we have formed. Depending on your specific needs, we will find the resource to deliver the answers you need.
